COUNTY SAVES $7,800 ON NEW BRIDGE COSTS

The Adams County commissioners this morning learned that a traffic survey they had made may save the county $7,800.

The state had originally recommended that the Kohler's Mill covered wooden bridge, near New Oxford, be replaced by a concrete bridge 28 feet wide.

With the wooden bridge reaching such condition that it should be replaced, the commissioners wondered about that 28-foot width. They decided to have a traffic count run and, armed with those figures, went to argue with the state.

TO ASK BIDS

As a result this morning approval was given by the state for construction of a 22-foot-wide concrete bridge at Kohler's Mill.

Since each foot of width decreases the cost of the proposed structure by about $1,300, the commissioners said at their meeting this morning they expect to save $7,800 on the project.

Bids for construction of the new structure will be sought in the near future.

At their meeting in the courthouse this morning, the commissioners met with Leslie Bowling, president of the Gettysburg Garden Club, to complete arrangements for flower garden work the club is volunteering in connection with the landscaping at the new county home. Also on the schedule for the new county home landscaping is a meeting of the commissioners Thursday with Harry Biesecker, local nurseryman, at the county home.

OKAY AID GRANT

The commissioners voted to pay $500 toward the damages in connection with relocation of approximately one-half of Route 01008 in Reading and Latimore Twp. by the state Highway Department. The work will include a bridge over Mud Run. In asking county help, the Highway Department said the damages will total "about $7,000."

Approval was given for county aid totaling $2,092.24 to Cone-wago Twp. for road work.

Rice Speaks At May 30 Services In Netherlands

MARGRATEN CEMETERY, Netherlands (AP) — U. S. Ambassador John S. Rice delivered the Memorial Day address Tuesday at this cemetery in which more than 8,000 American dead from World War II are buried.

Rice said at the ceremony attended by high Dutch officials that he comes from Gettysburg, "a quiet town in Pennsylvania, whose name is given to one of the bitterest conflicts in world history" and added, as he faced the rows of white crosses:

"I know well the visions evoked by the endless rows of monuments to the fallen. I am proud to be here at Margraten on this day and at this place, which the Dutch people have taken to their hearts and to their memories."

COLDEST MAY SINCE '25 IN GETTYSBURG

The weather man closed his books today on the coldest month of May in Gettysburg since 1925 and one of the chilliest Mays since continuous weather records began here in 1903.

The exceptionally cool May followed the coldest April here since 1907.

Although the mercury dropped to within six degrees of the freezing mark this month, it was the first snowless month in Gettysburg so far this year.

The month's average temperature was 58.7 degrees. Normal is 63.4 degrees. The temperature range was from the low of 38 on May 5 to a high of 86 on May 9.

The 80-degree mark was reached only four times this month. Temperatures in the 90's here in May are not unusual and occurred here last in 1959.

STILL AHEAD ON RAIN

The average daily high reading here this month was only 68.1 degrees while the daily minimum for the month averaged 49.35 degrees.

Although measurable amounts of rain fell on nine days this month, May rainfall was slightly less than half of normal with a total of only 2.06 inches. Normal is 4.19 inches. This month's rainfall was almost equal to that for May of last year.

The five-month accumulation of rainfall here, including winter snows, stands at 18.01 inches which is 1.39 inches above normal.

The coldest May on record here came in 1917 when the average temperature was 56.9 degrees. Last year May temperatures averaged 59.8 degrees.

Fogs, some of them very dense, thundershowers and high winds were among the special weather phenomena noted here during the month.

FIREMEN TO RESUME

Paris Gives Pres. Kennedy Warm Welcome; Talks With De Gaulle Enroute To Vienna

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

PARIS (AP)—After a 101-gun salute and a warm welcome from the people of Paris, President Kennedy began his first European venture in summit diplomacy at a conference with French President Charles de Gaulle.

The streets of the French capital, brilliant with red, white and blue flags against the soft green foliage of spring, wore a gay and festive air. But the political atmosphere was grimmer. On Saturday, Kennedy will meet Soviet Premier Khrushchev in Vienna, Austria, under the threat of a new Berlin crisis later this year.

Kennedy and De Gaulle opened their policy talks 45 minutes before lunch in Elysee Palace and were to continue this afternoon.

Their concern with a new Berlin move by Khrushchev was a major subject for discussion.

ASSURES DE GAULLE

Kennedy on his arrival publicly assured De Gaulle that their own talks in his view are as important

SYNOD WILL ORDAIN NINE THIS EVENING

The 275 delegates to the 142nd annual convention of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Maryland today continued their sessions at the seminary here after decisively defeating Tuesday a proposition that the synod establish the post of full-time secretary and name a minister to the position.

Argument from the floor resulted in rejection of the proposition on the grounds that it would "take another minister away from pastoral duties," and suggestions that the synod instead consider the possibility of a full-time "business manager" who would have the secretarial-statistical duties.

Rev. John F. Sammel, pastor of St. Paul's Church, Cumberland, Md., one of the group opposed to the full-time secretary proposal, said in the floor argument: "A minister is called to preach the word and administer the sacrament. If the position be created as proposed, it would impose on and ordained pastor a violation of his vows."

TWO NEW CONGREGATIONS

Rev. Paul Manrodt, Baltimore, added in the debate that "there is a shortage of ministers for accepted into the synod: St. Martin's of Annapolis and the Church of the Redeemer, Damascus, Md.

Tonight the synod concludes its sessions with the ordination of pastoral duties now."

The committee headed by Rev. Dixon A. Yaste, Baltimore, was asked to reconsider the matter in the light of the discussion and report back at next year's meeting.

APPROVE MERGER

The Maryland Synod this morning voted approval of the proposed merger of the United Lutheran Church in America with the Augustana Lutheran, American Evangelical Lutheran Church and the Suomi Synod. The new church, to be formed in 1962, will be known as "The Lutheran Church in America."

The vote was 190 in favor, 35 opposed and three abstaining. Also approved this morning was a Lutheran World Action goal of $87,750, or a per capita assessment of $1.65.

Governor Is Welcomed By Eisenhower

Former President Eisenhower, unable to attend Memorial Day exercises here Tuesday because of a number of previous commitments, wrote a welcome letter to Governor David L. Lawrence which was delivered to him at the Hotel Gettysburg before leaving for the cemetery.

The text of the letter, released today by the governor's office, follows:

Dear Gov. Lawrence: Only last evening did I learn from the local newspaper that you are to be in Gettysburg today.

I would, of course, have liked to be on hand to greet you, but I had already made arrangements for the day, including a number of hours in my office here.

By means of this note I just want to pay my respects, and, as one citizen of Gettysburg, welcome you to this particular area of your Commonwealth.

With warm regards, Sincerely, Dwight D. Eisenhower er violent fatalities during the four-day weekend included drownings not involving boats, in boating accidents and from miscellaneous mishaps. The overall death toll compared to last year's 379.

In the 1957 Memorial Day weekend, there also were 134 drownings and 113 persons killed in miscellaneous accidents for a death toll of 660.

The National Safety Council, which joined with police agencies during the long weekend in urging motorists to drive with caution, underestimated the heavy traffic toll.

EXCEEDED ESTIMATE

The council, in a pre-holiday statement, estimated 100 persons might be killed in the 30-hour period from 6 p.m. Monday to Tuesday midnight. The total was 113. The council did not make an estimate for the entire 102-hour period because Monday was generally observed as a work day. However, it said highway deaths for the period at this time of the year would total 385.

An Associated Press survey for a 102-hour non-holiday period, from 6 p.m. Friday May 12 to midnight Tuesday, May 16, showed 341 traffic fatalities. Other violent deaths included 14 in boating, 78 drownings and 106 in miscellaneous type accidents, a total of 539.

Large Crowd Witnesses May 30 Parade, Exercises At National Cemetery Here

3 RUSSIANS IMPRESSED BY SERVICES HERE

As guests of their former American comrades-in-arms in World War II, three members of the Soviet Veterans Committee Tuesday attended the Memorial Day services here. They said the exercises were beautiful and impressive.

The three arrived here Tuesday from Philadelphia as guests of "Arms of Friendship," an organization of World War II veterans who met the Russians in Germany and there decided that the cause of peace could be fostered by keeping close contact between the men who had fought for Russia and the men who had fought for America in a common cause.

C. Grant Pendill Jr., Berwyn, accompanying the three Russian veterans, said "Arms of Friendship" had arranged the tour by the Soviet veterans which began May 28 and ends June 7 to "give them the fullest opportunity to see how American veterans live and to exchange views."

ARRIVED AT NOON

In front of the governor were 500 men of the Second Reconnaissance Squadron, 104th Armored Cavalry, "The Governor's Troop." The unit is integrated.

Under cloudless blue skies in 60-degree weather, the memorial services began at 12:03 Tuesday afternoon when Governor Lawrence, Mrs. Lawrence and their son, Jerry, arrived from Indian-town Gap in "The Keystone State," a two-motored blue and gold Beechcraft airplane owned by the Civil Aeronautics Commission. The governor was late in his arrival. He had started from Indian-town Gap, found he had with him a speech he had made at Pittsburgh instead of the one for Gettysburg and had to turn back before completing the journey.

He arrived in Gettysburg to find bunting and flags brightening the scene. On the flagpole in Lincoln Square was a 34-starred flag, like that which flew a century ago, at half mast in memory of the dead.

LUNCHEON AND CONCERT

Governor and Mrs. Lawrence and their party lunched at the Hotel Gettysburg with officers of the local committee and other guests.

At 1 o'clock the Headquarters Command Band of the Bolling Air Force Base, Washington, D. C., presented a concert in Lincoln Square. A half hour later the band and honor guard from the 104th Armored Cavalry stood at attention while the Governor and Lt. Col. Marlin B. Bair, Camp Hill, inspected them. At the same time a 19-gun salute was fired in the governor's honor by the local howitzer battery at its armory.

Approximately 1,500 children, garbed in Sunday best, carrying flags and flowers, headed the half-hour-long parade that included the 500 men of the 2nd Reconnaissance Squadron from Gettysburg, York, Hanover, Chambersburg, Waynesboro and Harrisburg.

Family Picnic For Moose On Sunday

The annual family picnic of the Gettysburg Moose lodge will be held Sunday afternoon at the South Mountain Fairgrounds, Governor Maurice Shindeldecker has announced.

Buses to transport Moose members and their families to the fairgrounds will leave the Moose home on York St. at noon, 1 and 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon and return at 4, 5 and 6 o'clock.

Barbecue sandwiches, hot dogs, pretzels, sauerkraut, potato chips, ice cream and soft drinks will be served from noon to 3 o'clock. Games will be conducted for children and adults, Shindeldecker said.

The Moose governor also announced that the June meeting of the lodge will be held Thursday night at 8 o'clock at the Moose home. During the summer months, the lodge holds only one meeting a month.

Pennsylvania's Governor David L. Lawrence led the hundreds who took part in the exercises. He spoke at the cemetery in praise of the men who fought to save the nation, in assurance that the evils of segregation will end and of the determination of America to stand as a bulwark of freedom against communism.

Seated on the platform with the governor were three Russian veterans of World War II, here in a joint effort with their American comrades of arms of 15 years ago, to help keep peace between the two nations through the action of veterans' groups.

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy must wrestle with another man's dream in his conversations with President Charles de Gaulle in Paris today. It's De Gaulle's dream of a new, great and grand France.

The enormously dignified—some might say vain—Frenchman is 70 now. And for the rest of his life, even if he lives to 90, it's a dream not likely to be realized.

Although the United States and Russia are the only two great powers now, it's Red China, not France, which is moving up.

Except as De Gaulle sees it, there is no likely spot for France in the top echelon of world powers during the next quarter century. So the two presidents are not apt to settle much. At best they may understand each other more.

BOTH LACK TRIUMPHS

At worst De Gaulle may be hardened a little more in both his dreams and his obstinacy. Neither man can walk into the meeting room and lay a bowl of recent triumphs on the table to impress the other.

Fresh in De Gaulle's memory is Kennedy's disaster with the Cuban invasion, the erosion of American power and prestige in Laos, the Russian space flight which made the American space flight look secondary.

Kennedy, in turn, will be facing a man, 26 years his senior, whose own recent troubles may in the end overwhelm him.

De Gaulle barely squeaked through the generals' revolt in Algeria where the possibility of a new, wider and bloodier revolt is still very real. After three years of talking, De Gaulle still has not brought peace there.

PROBLEMS FOR JFK

Because De Gaulle is 70 and the history of France since World War II has been a history of instability and unpredictability, Kennedy must feel as he talks to the French president:

What will any promises from me to him or from him to me mean if he should disappear from the scene tomorrow? Will new generals take over? Will France even remain a democracy?

It's this very uncertainty and long instability which would make Congress reluctant to let France have American atomic weapons or a say-so on the use of those weapons, both of which De Gaulle would like.

FRANCE RECOVERS

Kennedy therefore can hardly soothe him by promising either. After the war, when America had both an economic and nuclear monopoly, it was convenient for De Gaulle and needy France to accept U. S. help and unquestioned leadership.

Now France is back on her feet and is developing her own nuclear power. American nuclear monopoly, broken by Russia, no longer exists.

Therefore, it is politically realistic for De Gaulle to assert French power and concern about American leadership since the United States no longer can guarantee France against Russian attack.

DE GAULLE'S PROBLEMS

But De Gaulle puts himself in the position of a prima donna when he demands equal say-so with the United States in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization—NATO — But does not contribute the number of French divisions NATO needs, pulls his Navy out of NATO's Mediterranean fleet, and undermines the United Nations by refusing to contribute France's share of keeping peace in the Congo.

Kennedy cannot afford a split with the Frenchman—for the sake of the NATO alliance and because he needs maximum Western unity when he talks this next weekend with Premier Khrushchev in Vienna.

Nor can France afford to go it alone, with Russia watching her over the rim of Eastern Europe. The Kennedy-De Gaulle talks, therefore, are likely to be polite but not particularly productive.

Randolph Scott Is OK After Surgery

ROCHESTER, Minn. (AP)—Actor Randolph Scott was reported in good condition and doing well at St. Mary's Hospital here after a hernia operation.

Scott has been almost a yearly visitor to the Mayo Clinic for health checkups since 1938. He arrived Sunday and the operation was performed Monday.

BEDFORD, Pa. (AP) — Two tractor-trailer trucks collided today in the Sideling Hill Tunnel on the Pennsylvania Turnpike, forcing the rerouting of all turnpike traffic.

A spokesman for the Turnpike Commission said traffic was being put off at the Breezewood and Fort Littleton interchanges, closest on either side of the tunnel which is located 22 miles east of Bedford.

The spokesman said crews were working to remove the disabled trucks. Neither driver was hurt.

TO TAKE LEGAL DEPOSITION IN CIVIL ACTION

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Attorneys take legal depositions June 8 from Douglas Pratt, president of the Philadelphia Transportation Co., in connection with the city's civil action to collect $1,815,000 in damages.

Pratt is charged in the suit with participating in a conspiracy to cheat the city in rehabilitation work on the Frankford Elevated train system.

Pratt, speaking for himself and the PTC, denies there was any conspiracy. He has stated, however, that PTC did collect $200,000 improperly from the city for repair work on the Market Street section of the el, which PTC owns. The city owns the Frankford section—connecting northeast Philadelphia with center city—which PTC operates.

HAD AGREEMENT

Pratt also has stated that PTC has an agreement with the city under which it will repay all costs of repair on the el—both portions—over a period of years.

Pratt will be questioned by City Solicitor David Berger and two other attorneys.

Twelve other persons also will be questioned in connection with the legal action.

Among them are George H. Smith, a former PTC vice president now on pension, and Eli G. Travis, a contractor whose repair work on the el is under fire.

Pratt was named in the suit on the basis of testimony given by Smith to City Controller Alexander Hemphill. It was Hemphill's routine check of the PTC-Travis contracts which uncovered alleged shortcuts in reconditioning of the rapid elevated line which carries 110,000 riders daily.

FREE ON BAIL

Travis, Smith and three former city employees are free in bail on criminal charges of conspiring to defraud the city.

Five other city officials, including the city treasurer, have been fired by Mayor Richardson Dilworth in connection with the scandal probe.

Deposition-taking is a formal pre-trial procedure in civil suits.

Reveal Machine For Heart Massaging

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A machine capable of massaging the heart without surgery has been successfully tested on human patients, it was announced here Tuesday.

The machine, developed by Dr. George A. Harkins and M. L. Bramson at San Francisco's Presbyterian Medical Center, was first demonstrated at a scientific meeting in Boston last month.

Harkins is a surgeon and Bramson is an engineer. Consisting of a pulsing device and a padded plunger mounted above a hard mattress, the machine is designed to be activated by gas pressure, its designers said in a report prepared for the Journal of Experimental Surgery.

The mechanical beat can be geared directly to even feeble electric current from the heart muscle itself, the report said. The machine is based on a technique for closed-chest heart massage announced by researchers at Johns Hopkins University last year. Before the external method of massage was developed, surgeons could only restore the heartbeat by opening the chest cavity and squeezing the heart by hand.

The presidential plane came down from a thinly overcast sky, and a brisk damp wind rippled the flags at Orly Field, carrying a promise of rain later in the day. But the scene was resplendent, in the great tradition of this city of gaiety and pageantry.

CANCER CURED IN PREGNANT WOMEN BY DRUG

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. Surgeon General Luther Terry says, "We have experience with a drug which has almost certainly cured cancer in man."

He stressed, in an interview Tuesday night over radio station WWDC, that the drug cures only a type of cancer which affects pregnant women.

"This is a very exciting thing. Now this is a very specific type of cancer in which there are not a great number of cases, but it's one of the widely growing cancers that happens to originate in the womb of a pregnant woman in the membranes," he said.

"And in the past when this cancer has arisen, it's been widely growing and fatal in every instance. We have just passed the stage now, where, after treatment of a group of these cases over a long period of time, we feel hopeful, in fact, almost confident that we have gotten actual cures."

DIDN'T MENTION DRUG

He did not mention the name of the drug.

The surgeon general said, however, there were many types of cancer, and added: "It's very likely that when we find a cure for one type of cancer it will not necessarily be applicable to another type of cancer. In other words, something that—a drug—that might cure cancer of the breast might not cure cancer of the lung or cancer of the intestine."

A spokesman for the National Institutes of Health, a division of the U.S. Public Health Service, said about half of the 60 women cancer patients treated with the chemical over a period of years had survived.

PUBLIC BORED BY ADVERTISING

WASHINGTON (AP)—The right to advertise doesn't include "the right to bore—to bore the blazes out of 170 million Americans."

That's the advice given today to the Advertising Federation of America by its new board chairman, John P. Cunningham of New York.

Cunningham is chairman of Cunningham & Walsh, Inc. "We must recognize that when we load the television screen with arrows running around people's stomachs and hammers banging away inside their brains—we are boring the public," he said.

CONTINUOUS COMMERCIALS

"We must recognize that when we plaster five different commercial messages right after one another at station break time—we are boring the public."

"We must recognize that there is something very boring about radio programming that alternates two minutes of music with one minute of commercial."

"It is not all broadcasting by any means. In the public print there are certain schools of advertising, that are boring me a bit by their imitiveness. The vodka ads seem to run in schools; all the cigarette ads that filter out the bad but so sensitively let the flavor through."

MARK LANDING WITH A PILLAR

MOSCOW (AP)—A commemorative pillar has been put up where Maj. Yuri Al. Gagarin landed from the world's first space flight April 12, the paper Red Star said today.

The site, it said, is across the Volga River from Saratov and 450 miles southeast of Moscow.

Red Star, published by the Soviet Defense Ministry, said members of a collective farm near the landing place decided to plant trees there and build an asphalt path to the pillar. It said a Young Pioneer camp would be organized nearby.

DISCLOSED MARK

Soviet authorities disclosed Gagarin's takeoff and landing points in a message for the records of the International Aeronautical Federation in Paris.

They said Gagarin took off at a so-called cosmodrome at Baikonur, in western Siberia near Lake Aral.

Gagarin was boosted aloft, the message said, by a rocket with six engines developing a total of 20 million horsepower.

Broiler, chickens, hogs, and cattle fatten quicker in air-conditioned surroundings. Studies have also shown that cool cows give more milk than cows housed in hot barns.

Khrush Visits Czechoslovakia

LONDON (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev reached Czechoslovakia by train today en route to Vienna to meet President Kennedy. The Soviet news agency Tass said. He is visiting the country, it said, "at the invitation of the Czechoslovak government."

There is speculation Khrushchev may hold a Communist summit meeting in Czechoslovakia in preparation for his talks Saturday and Sunday with Kennedy. He came from Moscow by way of Kiev and Lvov, where he stopped Tuesday night.

He is due tonight in Bratislava, near Slovakia's border with Austria, and will stay there until Friday. A Prague spokesman for the official Czechoslovak news agency CTK, disclosing this Tuesday night, said a Communist summit session "is possible, but as far as we know, nothing is certain yet."

In Warsaw, the Polish Press Agency reported that Zenon Kliszko, a member of the Polish Communist politburo and the closest aide to party chief Wladyslaw Gomulka, flew to Prague Tuesday. Some foreign observers believed his trip was connected with Khrushchev's arrival in Czechoslovakia.

HOLD SERVICES IN NEW OXFORD

Lt. Col. Franklin Davis, of the U. S. Army War College, Carlisle, was the speaker Tuesday evening at the annual Memorial Day services at New Oxford.

"It is fashionable today on the part of some to feel that the old fashioned virtues of patriotism, honesty and integrity are outmoded—but nothing could be farther from the truth," Colonel Davis told an audience gathered at the Sons of Veterans' Armory for the concluding service of a program that included rites in New Oxford's two cemeteries and a parade.

He concluded his talk by terming Lincoln's words concerning the unfinished task to which the living must be dedicated "as true today as they were then, nearly a century ago."

Joseph I. Weaver was chief marshal for the parade which included the New Oxford High School band, parochial and public school children, the New Oxford town council, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, firemen, Brodbeck's Band, East Berlin VFW members, Fairfield Amvets, Moose Band of Hanover, Sons of Veterans Reserves and others. The Sons of Veterans Reserves provided the military rites at the cemeteries.

At the SUV grounds County Superintendent of Schools C. P. Keffer was presiding officer. Rev. John Z. Martin gave the prayer. Brodbeck's Band played "America" and the New Oxford High School Band the "Star Spangled Banner."

Says Kennedy In Difficult Position

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Vatican City weekly L'Osservatore Della Domenica said today President Kennedy will find himself in a difficult position in his talks with Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

Tension of the talks "might presage troubled days for Europe and the world if Kennedy, as all believe and as freedom and liberty require, resists the blandishments and outbursts of his discordant partner in the talks," it said.

The paper said recent developments in Cuba, Laos, South Viet Nam, South Korea and Africa are sure to make the atmosphere of the talks difficult. It predicted that Khrushchev would take the opportunity to raise new threats or new problems over Berlin.

CARNOUSTIE, Scotland (AP)—Diane Robb, a 17-year-old English girl, won four straight holes today and defeated the last American, Mrs. Ann Stranahan, 3 and 2, in the quarter-finals of the British Women's Golf Championship.

Mrs. Stranahan is the wife of Frank Stranahan, former British Amateur golf champion and now a pro from Toledo, Ohio.

The other winners today were Mrs. John Beck, 60, a former British Curtis Cup player; Mrs. Marley Spearman of England, and Claudine Cross of France.

Damage Suit Filed In 1959 Accident

Damages in excess of $10,000 are sought by Gilbert F. Swanson, East Berlin R. 1, and his 16-year-old son, Allen R. Swanson, in a trespass suit filed in York County court Monday against Curvin Krout, East Berlin R. 1, and his 16-year-old son, Kenneth.

The complaint states that the younger Swanson was injured when he was a passenger in a car driven by the younger Krout and the car hit a tree along Coon and Beagle Club Road a half-mile from the Lincoln Highway on Nov. 2, 1959.

The suit asks in excess of $5,000 for the injured boy and in excess of $5,000, including $365 medical expenses, for his father.

VISIT NEARBY FARM

At the rostrum in the National Cemetery, the three were welcomed to Pennsylvania by Governor David L. Lawrence. They then placed a wreath "to the fallen heroes of Gettysburg from the Soviet World War II veterans" the battle here.

Later Tuesday evening they visited the farm of Addison Dvorak, Gettysburg R. D., and seemed intensely interested in the at the Soldiers' National monument.

The three seemed fascinated by their tour and well aware of the meaning and importance of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address and field crops, beef cattle and equipment there.

Large Crowd

15, Veterans of Foreign Wars, fired the salute and Dean H. Steiner sounded taps.

At the rostrum, Judge W. C. Sheely was master of ceremonies. Following the playing of "America" by the Gettysburg Senior High School band, Rev. Fr. Anthony F. Kane, pastor of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church here, gave the invocation.

BRIEF 'FIELD TOUR

While the band played the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" softly, Attorney Donald M. Swope read Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

The Bolling Air Force Band played a selection following Governor Lawrence's talk and then played the "Star Spangled Banner" after the benediction by Rev. Lena Parr, pastor of St. Paul's A.M.E. Zion Church here.

Following the services on the rostrum Governor Lawrence welcomed the visiting Russian war veterans to the state, then with Mrs. Lawrence, their son, Chester S. Shriver, chairman of the Memorial Day committee, and National Park Superintendent James B. Myers, made a brief tour of the battlefield. Governor and Mrs. Lawrence made plans at the conclusion of that trip to return later this summer for a full day's tour of the field.

In his opening remarks at the rostrum, the governor praised the committee and community for "the outstanding program conducted here."

SAY EICHMANN WASN'T WORSE

By THOMAS A. REEDY

JERUSALEM (AP)—The Jews in Hungary decided against trying to kill Adolf Eichmann for fear that Nazi Germany had men in reserve who were even worse, a survivor of the World War II slaughter testified today.

Hansi Brand told the Eichmann trial court the Jewish leaders in Budapest were so frantic in the summer of 1944 that they frequently discussed the possibility of assassinating the Gestapo chief who directed the extermination of Europe's Jewry.

But "we were convinced that maybe someone else would come in his place and the death mills would continue maybe at an increased pace," Mrs. Brand said.

TOOK TO THE FIELD

Eichman, chief of the Gestapo's Jewish Affairs Office in Berlin, took to the field in Hungary to hasten deportations to the Auschwitz gas chambers. Evidence has been introduced that this pace reached as high as 12,000 a day.

Mrs. Brand and her husband, Joel, were cross-examined by the court and by Eichmann's defense counsel on their testimony of events in Budapest. They were also taken again over the ground of Joel Brand's mission to Turkey and Palestine with Eichmann's offer to trade one million Jewish lives for 10,000 trucks to be used on the Soviet front.

Both witnesses reiterated that the Eichmann proposal stemmed directly from Gestapo Chief Heinrich Himmler as early as April-May 1944.

USE AS WEDGE

Brand said it was, in his opinion, a move by Himmler to use the remaining two million Jews in Europe as a wedge for broader negotiations with the Western allies.

Himmler's effort to salvage something out of the growing wreckage apparently infected all the SS officers in Budapest, Brand said.

"The SD (security police), the SS intelligence and even the Hungarian counter-intelligence all of a sudden tried to curry our favor," the witness said.

Only Eichmann seemed impervious to the atmosphere of that time, both of the Brands said.

CHILD IS HURT

A five-year-old girl suffered minor injuries when police said she ran into the side of a moving train in Hanover. Hanover police said the girl, Sharon Blevins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Blevins, Hanover, was treated at Hanover General Hospital for brush burns of both legs and dislocated. Police said the car was operated by Robert L. McIntyre, 17, McSherrystown.

98 To Recover 'Wheat' Checks:
Checks amounting to $2,778.31, comprising part of the second payment to the Adams county wheat reduction association for 1935 crops, have been received, John W. Black, Gettysburg R. 3, treasurer of the association, announced today.

The checks, which total 98, range in size from $6.06 to $107.62. Distribution of the vouchers will be made at various places in the county.

48 Retailers, 5 Clubs Given Beer Licenses: William I. Shields, Adams county treasurer, announced this morning the names of five clubs and 48 beer retail establishments in Adams county that have received 1936 beer licenses. Four other establishments have made application, but either have not filed the necessary bonds or have not called at the county treasurer's office to lift the licenses.

Applicants pay a $10 fee that goes to the county. Clubs pay a $25 license fee and retailers pay $100. The money collected for the licenses will be distributed later this month to the boroughs and townships of the county. The amount for distribution on the licenses already issued is $4,925. The county has received $530 in applicants that had their applications in proper form and filed the necessary bonds.

Coin Bill Passes: Washington, D. C. — The senate passed today a bill authorizing coinage of 50,000 half dollars to commemorate the 75th Anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg. The senate amended the measure to provide that the coins bear the date 1936, regardless of when they were minted, and to fix at 25,000 the minimum number of coins to be issued at one time.

Because of the amendment the measure now must go back to the house for approval. The amended bill also provides that the memorial coins shall be legal tender and may be disposed of at par or at a premium by a committee authorized by the governor of Pennsylvania, the said proceeds to be used to defray the cost of the memorial celebration.

Fire Plugs And Water Situation Before Council: After councilmen in regular session Monday night heard a report from Horace L. Bender, member of council and first assistant chief of the Gettysburg fire company, on the results of a test conducted by firemen on plugs in four sections of the borough two weeks ago, they questioned George W. Naylor, manager of the Gettysburg Water Company, on the measures the water company is taking to remedy the conditions. "I'll guarantee that you will get better fire protection in the borough," Mr. Naylor declared, "and I promise council one hundred per cent co-operation from the water company in improving conditions. We are going to take care of the situation."

William Krick Addresses Club: William Krick, of Philadelphia, was the guest speaker at the regular weekly meeting of the Gettysburg Lions club in the Eagle hotel Monday evening.

Mr. Krick discussed the results of the use of various types of gasoline in the engines. The committee in charge of the July 4 fireworks exhibition reported progress is being made in the arrangements.

Members of the local club in attendance at the state convention at Scranton are: Col. E. H. Bertram, Prof. Paul Cessna, Ralph Oyler, Emory Dougherty and Paul Dougherty. Professor Cessna is a member of the state board of directors.

Today's Talk

ENCOURAGEMENT
You may think the above title is a very commonplace one. It is. So is bread a commonplace product. But think what the world owes to the "staff of life." Then think what you owe to the encouragement that has come to you from time to time.

Bread belongs to the stomach, but encouragement is for the soul.

A human being may be given sufficient bread to satisfy his craving and hunger, but no human being ever received all the encouragement he wanted. In fact, the longer he lives and the more successful he becomes, the more he wants.

Encouragement is the salt that savors the smiles and joy of the world.

Today, study the first dozen faces you see. Do you think you could pick out one that wouldn't beam and brighten after a little encouragement? Answer—no, not one. Every last member of the human race, moment by moment, craves—hungers and yearns—for encouragement.

Make it one of the busiest habits of your life to encourage everybody that you can.

For every time you encourage someone else, you encourage yourself. And the more people you encourage, the more encouraged you become.

You don't have to belong to any society, club or organization. And you don't need any "funds," or experience for that matter. All you have to have is the willingness to encourage. You can become a regular little encouragement society—president, secretary and treasurer—all by yourself.

That is what the writer of this little Talk is trying to be—for you.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Democracy" Protected, 1961, by The George Matthew Adams Service

Just Folks

THE BROKEN DRUM

There is sorrow in the household,
There's a grief to hard to bear;
There's a little cheek that's tear stained,
There's a sobbing baby there.

And try how we will to comfort,
Still the tiny tear drops come;
For, to solve a vexing problem,
Curly Locks has wrecked his drum.

With his metal bank he broke it,
Tore the tightened skin aside;
Gazed on vacant space and nothing,
Then he broke right down and cried.

For the bursted bubble shocked him,
And the baby tears must come;
For a joy has gone forever;
Curly Locks has wrecked his drum.

While his mother tries to soothe him,
I am sitting here alone;
In the life that lies behind me
Many shocks like that I've known.

And the boy who's upstairs weeping,
In the years that are to come
Will learn that many pleasures
Are as empty as his drum.

ASKS SPECIAL INVESTIGATOR

HARRISBURG (AP)—Republican State Chairman George I. Bloom has renewed his request that a special prosecutor be named to investigate the Philadelphia payola scandal. In a letter to Atty. Gen. Anne X. Alpern Tuesday he suggested she appoint someone "of the calibre and integrity of former Supreme Court Justice Thomas D. McBride" to replace the three-member committee appointed by Philadelphia Mayor Richardson Dilworth.

"Your faith in the district attorney and the city solicitor (of Philadelphia) is commendable," Bloom wrote, "but after all, you must realize they are politically indebted to the (Democratic) party organization which controls the present city administration."

Bloom said the group Dilworth named to study charges of payola and illegal contract activities involving work on the city-owned Frankford elevated train system falls "far short of the public's demand for a full and impartial investigation." Dilworth named Jefferson B. Fordham, dean of the University of Pennsylvania law school; Charles H. Frazier, chief engineer of the Philadelphia Gas Works; and Thomas H. Carroll, a certified public accountant.

CARBO, AIDES COULD GET 125 YEARS, FINES

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Frankie Carbo, alleged underworld czar of boxing, has been convicted of extortion and conspiracy in what officials call a major blow against organized crime.

But, they warn, other links between bigtime boxing and the underworld apparently exist.

Carbo and four confederates were convicted Tuesday of trying to chisel into the earnings of ex-welterweight champion Don Jordan. They face possible prison terms ranging from 25 to 125 years and fines of $30,000 to $70,000.

"This case is unique in showing what happens when big business and the underworld team up," said Special Prosecutor Alvin N. Goldstein, a former aide of New York Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan.

'UP TO SOCIETY'

"It's up to society to do something about it. If we stop with this conviction, the practice will continue. There are always people willing to step in and take the places of those who get caught."

The defendants were accused of trying to control Jordan's contract by threatening physical harm to his manager, Don Neseth; and Jackie Leonard, a Hollywood fight promoter.

Convicted with Carbo were Frank (Blinky) Palermo, Philadelphia fight manager who was allegedly Carbo's front man; Truman Gibson Jr., head of the now defunct International Boxing Club; and Joe Sica and Louis Tom Dragna, Los Angeles police characters.

The verdict by a jury of 10 women and 2 men climaxed a three-month trial and a two-year investigation by federal authorities and Los Angeles police into gangster-type invasion of professional boxing.

1,000 STONE COPS IN PARK

LOS ANGELES (AP)—An angry throng hurled rocks, bottles, cans, sticks and baseball bats at police when a riot broke out among holiday visitors in Griffith Park Tuesday.

Authorities aid the melee started when officers tried to arrest two youths for horseplay on the park's merry-go-round. Police said the offenders were part of a group of Negroes who had been jumping on and off the platform. Sympathizers in the crowd challenged the arrests and soon a mob of 200 persons was advancing on the officers. One of the beleaguered officers fired a shot into an embankment. The shot partly dispersed the crowd.

Of the 75 police called out to halt the disturbance, five were injured. Two civilians also were hurt.

Three men were arrested. Officials estimated that 3,000 persons were near the merry-go-round at the time the riot started and that as many as 1,000 probably took part. An unoccupied patrol car was overturned.

Although most of the participants were Negroes, police said there was no inter-racial fighting within the crowd.

The park—largest in the city—was closed to all visitors at 5 p.m.

PONDER NEEDS IN NEW PROBE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A commission appointed to study the city's procurement practices and its Civil Service—employed supervisors in the light of recent scandal meets today to consider its needs.

"We will need competent help, but what order it will take remains to be seen," Jefferson B. Fordman, chairman of the commission and dean of the University of Pennsylvania law school, said Tuesday.

"As to the amount of funds we will need, we just don't know at this time," he said.

Meanwhile, James H. J. Tate, president of City Council, promised financial support for the commission. "I will recommend to council that it give its whole-hearted support as well," he added.

Mayor Richardson Dilworth appointed the commission in the wake of a scandal involving gifts accepted by city employees from a contractor assigned to do work on the Frankford elevated transit line.

Home this afternoon with Rev. Dr. Henry W. Sternat officiating, interment was in Evergreen Cemetery. Pallbearers were Vernon Clapper, Foster Mann, Dallas Bluebaugh, John Sanders, Regan Harbaugh and Fern Ohler.

'CANADA CUP' LOSES SOUTH KOREAN TEAM

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

DORADO BEACH, Puerto Rico

(AP)—The ninth annual Canada Cup matches, already scarred in a power war with the Professional Golfers Association, suffered another battle wound today with the withdrawal of the South Korean team because of the revolution in that Asiatic country.

Chang Sang Hahn and Hak Young Kim, the two Korean professionals, cabled Frank Pace, Jr., of New York, president of the International Golf Association, they were unable to obtain visas for the trip and were withdrawing.

Teobaldo Perez and Francisco Gonzales, the two Venezuelans, also have informed Pace of visa problems but the South American country is expected to have a team here by Thursday morning when twosomes from 33 countries tee off in quest of the Canada Cup, now held by the United States, and the individual crown won by Belgium's Flory Van Donck.

LOST U.S. PLAYER

Earlier this month the cup matches lost Arnold Palmer, U.S. Open champion; Gary Player of South Africa, the Masters champion and leading money-winner on the U. S. PGA tour this spring; and Stan Leonard of Canada, only man ever to have won the individual title in the cup matches twice.

All three were denied permission by the PGA to compete for their countries here because the PGA co-sponsored Memphis Open has the same June 1-4 dates as the cup matches.

Jimmy Demaret took Palmer's place. Harold Henning replaced Player and Al Johnston will be playing for Canada in place of Leonard.

These changes make the Australian team of Peter Thomson and Kel Nagle the heavy favorite to regain the cup they already have won twice.

NEGROES PLAN NEW SIT-INS AT $32,000 HOMES

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Negroes are applying to a San Francisco real estate developer for $32,000 homes their sit-in technique of protesting segregation.

"Our people have been locked out when they attempt to look at the Forest Knolls model home," said Terry Francois, chapter president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

But the lockout keeps potential white home buyers away, too. "So we'll have somebody here every working hour," Francois declared Tuesday when 15 whites joined about 20 Negroes in the sit-in protest on the slopes of Mt. Sutro.

The sit-in procedure started Sunday in support of Willie L. Brown, Jr., 27, an attorney, who attempted to buy a home in the development of the Standard Building Co. CAN'T BUY HOME

Brown, runnerup in the San Francisco Junior Chamber of Commerce distinguished service award competition last year, said he wanted to move nearer his law offices. Brown said the salesmen refused to talk about selling a house and left the model home area.

Throughout Sunday and Memorial Day, normally busy days for house hunters, the model home remained locked and no salesmen were evident.

The Bay Area Catholic Interracial Council said in a statement that Carl and Fred Gellert, who head the Standard Building Co., should "publicly declare that you welcome members of all races."

The Gellerts and George G. Parsons, Standard Building's general manager, were unavailable for comment.

NOT AFRAID OF ANY JINX AT BELMONT

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Jack Price isn't afraid of any jinx affecting Carry Back in Saturday's Belmont Stakes.

The trainer of the first horse expected to win racing's triple crown in 13 years said, "I've done so many things to jinx him in the past I don't think anything will happen."

This was at Aqueduct Memorial Day before Price saw Kelso put on a Carry Back come-from-behind stretch drive to win the Metropolitan Handicap.

Price had been asked if he was afraid something might jinx his "bum" as he calls his lean 3-year-old colt. It was recalled that Tim Tam, the last revious horse with a chance to take the triple crown, broke down in the stretch in 1958 and finished second to Cavan.

SURVIVED JINXES

"I don't think anything like that will happen," Price said. "I've done so many things to jinx him in the past. Take the Flamingo at Hialeah.

"Tommy Roberts, the TV broadcaster, asked if he could record an interview with me before the race. I said sure. When the time came, however, Tommy had set his equipment up in the winner's circle.

"I said, 'What are you trying to do to me, Tommy? Don't you realize this is the kiss of death?'"

"Against my better judgment I was persuaded to go through with it in the winner's circle. Not only that, but they brought out the trophy for the ceremony as if we already had won."

"While this was going on Sellers (jockey Johnny Sellers) rode by and yelled, 'Say, Boss, you're a little previous, aren't you?'"

"We survived those jinxes so I can't see anything to be afraid of Saturday."

Lack of shoes didn't bother Indiana Maid when she won the Columbian Handicap at Hialeah. The Florida-bred mare ran seven furlongs barefooted, an unusual racing feat.

EXPECT TOUGH TALK FROM IKE AT GOP DINNER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republicans are looking to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for a resounding attack on the Kennedy administration's domestic policies at a party rally here Thursday night.

The former president was represented by those who have talked to him recently as being in a mood to assail President Kennedy's New Frontiers program as one likely to call for a spending spree threatening the stability of the dollar.

With Kennedy scheduled to begin informal talks in Vienna Saturday with Soviet Premier Khrushchev, Eisenhower is expected to refrain from any attacks on foreign policy at this time.

The presence of his brother, Dr. Milton Eisenhower, on the Tractors for Freedom Committee is regarded as an indication that the former president will not join other Republicans in criticizing the proposed exchange with Cuba's Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

Eisenhower's speech at a $100-a-plate fund raising dinner will be his first since he left office last Jan. 20.

JOIN TO CUT COSTS

While Democrats don't think they will like what he says, they are cooperating with Republicans to cut the cost of staging the dinner. The GOP helped reduce the expenses of a similar 6,000-plate birthday affair for President Kennedy in the same armory last Saturday night.

While officials of the two national committees have gone about their usual business of exchanging political insults in public, they have collaborated privately to share the cost of building platforms, arranging bunting and transporting tables and chairs. Both committees thus saved several thousand dollars.

B. B. Attendance Is Off 20,500

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Memorial Day attendance for Major League baseball dropped some 20,500 from last year's figures despite an added site on the schedule due to the American League's expansion to 10 teams this season.

Although first place Detroit pulled in the day's top crowd, 51,791, for a doubleheader with Kansas City, the American League's total of 128,071 was 7,578 below the 1960 figure of 135,649. The two new clubs in the AL, Los Angeles and Washington, drew 14,277 at Washington.

The National League attracted 119,926, a drop of 12,948 from last year. The first place battle between Cincinnati and the Giants drew the NL's top attendance, 41,693, at San Francisco, where a mob of 20,000 stormed the gates and crushed three ticket booths in pursuit of 6,000 tickets.

The two-league total was 247,997, compared to last year's attendance of 268,523.

Orioles Win Twin Bill In Taking 3rd Place; Yanks Tie Modern Home Run Mark

By ED WILKS

The Detroit Tigers came off with a 2½ game lead in the American League race after the Memorial Day firing, but Baltimore moved into third place, four games behind, with a 6-1 and 2-1 sweep over the Chicago White Sox.

The Orioles did it as southpaw Steve Barber won his seventh with a three-hit shutout and Skippy Brown and Hoyt Wilhelm combined for a four-hitter.

Second-place Cleveland shaved a game off Detroit's lead by beating Minnesota twice, 4-3 and 7-5, while the Tigers split with Kansas City, winning 5-3 before the A's came back for a 9-3 decision. New York belted seven home runs and beat Boston 12-3, and Washington beat the Los Angeles Angels 5-1.

ONLY 3 SINGLES

Barber walked six and struck out three while blanking the White Sox on three singles for his fifth success in the last six decisions. The Orioles, who have won seven of their last eight, collected 15 hits with Gus Triandos and Jim Gentile, who socked his 13th home run, each driving in two runs. Bob Shaw (3-4) was the loser.

Brown (5-1) then won his fourth in a row, shutting out the Sox on two singles for eight innings. Wilhelm retired the first two in the ninth, then gave up a homer by Jim Landis—the first run the knuckleball master had allowed in 17 innings for the last place White Sox, who have lost nine of their last 10 and are 0-6 against Baltimore. Billy Pierce (1-4) lost it on Dick Williams' home run in the fourth innings.

COME FROM BEHIND

The Tigers came from behind in the opener on a grand-slam homer in the eighth by Norm Cash, the first man faced by lefty Bud Daley in relief. Bill Fischer (1-1) was the winner in relief. Reliever Bill Kunkel, who lost his first in the opener, then saved the second game victory for Jerry Walker (2-2). Norm Siebern belted a pair of 400-foot hits homers and drove in five runs for the A's. His first, with two on, beat Paul Foytack (2-3) in a five-run third inning.

A pinch single by Don Dillard broke a tie and won the first game for the Indians against Camilo Pascual (4-3). Wynn Hawkins and winning reliever Frank Funk (6-3) stopped Lennie Green's hitting streak at 24 games—longest in the majors in two years. In the nightcap, the Tribe scored in three-run bursts in the first and third innings, with half of the runs unearned against Pedro Ramos (3-5). In the nightcap, Mudecat Grant (3-0) won it with three innings of two-hit, shutout relief by Barry Latman after Bob Allison had triggered a five-run sixth for the Twins. Minnesota has lost five in a row and 10 of 11.

TIED HOMER RECORD

Mickey Mantle, Roger Maris and Bill Skowron each slugged a pair of homers for the Yankees, tying the major league record for most players hitting two or more in a nine-inning game. Relievers Bill Stafford and Jim Coates blanked the Red Sox on three hits over the last six innings, with Stafford (1-2), the winner, retiring all 12 men he faced. Gene Conley (2-4) was the loser, giving up four homers, the fourth by Yogi Berra.

The Senators reached .500, for the first time since their second game of the season, behind the six-hit pitching of Ed Hobaugh (3-2). Singles by Jim King and Willie Tasby broke a 1-1 tie in the third off loser Ned Garver (0-3) as Washington won its seventh in a row at home—and handed the Angels their 13th consecutive defeat on the road.

Jocko Collins Is Discharged By NBA

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The National Basketball Association will have a new supervisor of referees next year.

Jocko Collins said Tuesday that he had been fired from his post as supervisor. He said he received his notice of dismissal last week from NBA President Maurice Podoloff.

The 55-year-old Collins declined to give any reasons for his dismissal but he had been under fire from the club owners who had complained about assignment and quality of referees.

NEW YORK (AP)—Why not a smidgen of credit for Johnny Sellers, the lean-faced 23-year-old jockey who will be out there Saturday at Belmont Park trying for the elusive Triple Crown with the sensational colt Carry Back?

Sellers, now the nation's leading rider, is the crew-cut, slim 110-pounder who gives trainer-breeder Jack Price fits when he waits with Carry Back. They come whooshing down the stretch to win the big ones by a whisker.

In the Kentucky Derby at Louisville May 6, Carry Back rushed up from another county to whip Crozier by three-quarters of a length with a cliff-hanger that Pearl White serial, Ditto by the would have outdone the chillest same margin over Globemaster in the Preakness May 20 at Baltimore. Now it will be the $125,000-added Belmont Stakes, and everyone wonders — can they make it?

OWNS FARM

Born in Los Angeles, Sellers was raised around Tulsa, Okla., and until he left night classes at Miami's South Broward High School last spring, he was the wealthiest high school jockey in the land. He owns an Oklahoma farm, raises quarter horses and steers.

Carry Back, a Cinderella horse who cost $700 and has now earned $740,000, won the Flamingo at Hialeah and the Florida Derby at Gulfstream. Then came the Kentucky Derby and Preakness. All were $100,000-plus races, and Sellers bided his time like an ice-man before turning Carry Back loose for his pulsating stretch runs.

Sellers first came into prominence, along with Carry Back, last October when they combined to capture the $287,970 Garden State Stakes, the world's richest horse race. He was the fourth-ranked jockey in number of winners in 1960, and his mounts earned $1,464,550. At the usual 10 per cent for the jockey, that figures a salary of $146,455.

WARD FINISHED 3RD

Foyt drove the Indianapolis Boys Special, Sachs the Long Beach, Calif., Dean Special.

Mechanical trouble sent Rathmann to the sidelines Tuesday after he had led part of the race. Other leaders at various times included 1962 winner Troy Ruttman, who became physically exhausted; rookie Parnelli Jones and second-time starter Jim Hurtubise.

NO SERIOUS INJURY

Hurtubise and Jones both suffered facial cuts from small flying objects, and Jones' cut forced him into a four-minute plus pit stop.

Jack Brabham of Australia, drove a shrewd, smooth race to ninth place but he never was in contention.

KEFAUVER IS PLEASED WITH CARBO'S GUILT

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., says the extortion conviction of Frankie Carbo has given Congress "an unparalleled opportunity to effect a final and conclusive cleanup job in professional boxing."

Carbo, long reputed to be boxing's secret boss, was convicted Tuesday in Los Angeles with four others on charges of trying to muscle in on the earnings of former welterweight champion Don Jordan.

The Senate antitrust and monopoly subcommittee, headed by Kefauver, started hearings today on the senator's bill which would set up federal regulation to drive racketeers out of boxing. The bill would create the post of federal boxing commissioner with powers to regulate professional boxing.

PALERMO CONVICTED

Under his proposal, Kefauver said, "Men like Carbo and Palermo couldn't operate."

Frank (Blinky) Palermo, Philadelphia fight manager and allegedly Carbo's front man, was convicted with Carbo.

"Professional boxing in racket-ridden from top to bottom," Kefauver said in a statement prepared for the start of hearings on his bill.

The bill, however, faces an uphill fight. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy has declared he is in favor of federal regulation to drive underworld characters away from the ring, but that his agency is not the appropriate one to take on the licensing powers the bill would provide.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., senior GOP member on Kefauver's subcommittee, has called the bill an invasion of states' authority. Not all Democrats like the bill, either.

Youth, Teeners Nabbed In Stabbing

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A young man and six teen-agers have been arrested and charged with aggravated assault and battery in the stabbing of a 62-year-old man on a crowded subway platform.

The man, Baylor Duncan, was taken to Albert Einstein Medical Center Tuesday, where he was reported in critical condition.

Police said a gang of youths walked up to Duncan, made a remark and then stabbed him.

The seven arrested were identified by a woman who told police she saw them run up from the subway station and board a bus.

Three knives were found on the bus.

Texan A. J. Foyt Wins Tight 500-Mile Classic

By DALE BURGESS

Associated Press Sports Writer

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—

Texan A. J. Foyt, who sits mightily tall in a race car seat, won't know until tonight's victory dinner how much he won Tuesday by capturing the golden anniversary 500-mile auto race in a record 139.131 miles an hour.

What he does know is that the $100,000 or so, almost slipped through his fingers in a ferocious contested race that knocked out 21 of the 33 starting cars. And it wasn't until Tuesday night that he learned he had set a record instead of an almost. This because of a breakdown in the timing.

It was a three-car race in the last stages among Foyt, 26, Houston, Tex.; Eddie Sachs, Center Valley, Pa., and 1959 winner Roger Ward. It finally was decided in the pits.

PIT TIME DECIDED

Foyt made his third and supposedly last pit stop for tires and fuel, but the connection on the pressure fueling system wouldn't work. His crew borrowed a refueling rig from Len Sutton's pit and called Foyt back in for an extra stop.

Meanwhile, Sachs was flying and looked like a sure winner after failing to finish in four previous starts. Then his right rear tire wore ragged and he had to stop for a new one with only three laps—7½ miles—to go.

Foyt passed Sachs as the Pennsylvanian was gunning his car out of the pits. The handsome Texan beat Eddie to the finish line by 8½ seconds. With four pit stops apiece, Sachs spent 8 2/5ths seconds longer off the track.

WARD FINISHED 3RD

Foyt drove the Indianapolis Boys Special, Sachs the Long Beach, Calif., Dean Special.

Arendtsville took undisputed possession of first place in the South Penn Baseball League by nipping Fairfield 3-2 on the latter's field Tuesday to remain unbeaten. Dick Pitzer and Guy Weikert hooked up in a pretty pitchers' duel all the way with for former allowing but four hits and the latter yielding seven to the winners. Arendtsville tabbed two runs in the fourth without benefit of a hit and scored its other run in the ninth on but one safety.

Ineffective pitching and weak fielding proved the downfall of Gettysburg at Mummasburg, the local entry dropping an 11-5 decision for its sixth loss in as many starts.

FIRST SETBACK

Huntertown was knocked out of the unbeaten class when it bowed at Littlestown in a tight game 4-2.

Bob Weaver of Littlestown set down 17 batters via strikeouts and gave up but four hits. Paul Reichert, Huntertown, also turned in a good performance in whiffing 12. W. Billman rapped a pair of doubles for the losers.

In another tight game at McSherrystown the home team dropped its sixth straight by losing 3-0 to Harney. Simpson, Harney moundsman, whiffed 10 and yielded only three hits. Groft, McSherrystown starter, also pitched well in giving up just five hits but his teammates failed to hit at opportune moments.

Cashtown gained its third victory of the campaign by pounding out an 11-5 verdict over Booneville at Cashtown. Bill Singley led the Cashtown 11-hit assault with a pair of singles and a triple. Herring held Booneville to five hits.

In a 12-inning affair at Taneytown, the home team edged Brushtown in a thriller 6-5.

now in use was adopted.

Thirty years ago next June 22 the Pennsylvania General Assembly by Act 233 selected the hemlock (Tsuga canadensis Linnaeus) as the state tree, and at the same time by Act 234 named the ruffed grouse (Bonasa umbellus) as the official game bird of the state.

The specie of hemlock grown in Pennsylvania is also called the Canada hemlock and hemlock spruce. It is a handsome tree, usually 60 to 80 feet, but sometimes 100 feet high with a trunk two to four feet in diameter. The leaves are dark green.

The ruffed grouse, or beech-partridge, is a forest dweller. In the spring of the year the males make their presence known by "drumming" on a log.

One of the beauties of Pennsylvania's mountains in the spring months is a distinctive flower, called the mountain laurel (Kalmia latifolia). By Act of Assembly No. 107, approved May 5, 1933, Pennsylvania adopted the mountain laurel as the state flower. It is usually a shrub with very stiff branches, forming dense thickets, 10 to 20 feet high. It bears smooth, oval, pointed laurel-like leaves and handsome pink or white flowers, about one inch across in large terminal clusters. Laurel festivals held each year attract thousands of visitors to the mountain playgrounds of Pennsylvania.

The whitetail deer (Odocoileus virginianus) became the official state animal of Pennsylvania by Act of Assembly No. 416, approved October 2, 1959. Deer hunting in the Commonwealth draws thousands of sportsmen to Pennsylvania's forests. The hunting seasons for deer are set by the State Game Commission.

When the onrushing waters of the Mississippi River and its tributaries began their annual rush this spring, threatening hundreds of cities in their path, many homeowners and business people — who in the past had suffered severe flood damage — refused to become worried.

This amazing turnaround — in that vast watershed comprising 41 per cent of the nation's land area and affecting 31 states each spring with fears of apprehension — was due to a fantastic flood-control system that has been in the works for 135 years at a cost of at least $22 billion.

Because of this program, an Omaha, Neb., lumber company owner gratefully said: "I would have lost the lumber if it wasn't for the dams."

The dams pointed up a necessary fact of life so vital to those persons near rivers and areas. Each spring accumulated snow deposits can, given about a week of warm March weather, melt rapidly. The snowmelt — or runoff — when mixed with a day or two of heavy rainfall, can then flow freely to become springtime floods, inundating many low-land areas — unless there are dams, reservoirs and other catch basins to hold back the waters, according to the National Water Institute.

Thus storage and overflow problems are a necessary concern to many areas and those lacking the facilities are faced with two incongruous consequences: drought and flooding.

Drought occurs in water-short areas that, after receiving an avalanche of water, lack the facilities to catch and store it when, and until it is needed.

Flooding is helped by the nation's 395 million acres of eroded land that — stripped of its top soil — fails to slow up and absorb the swiftly-running water.

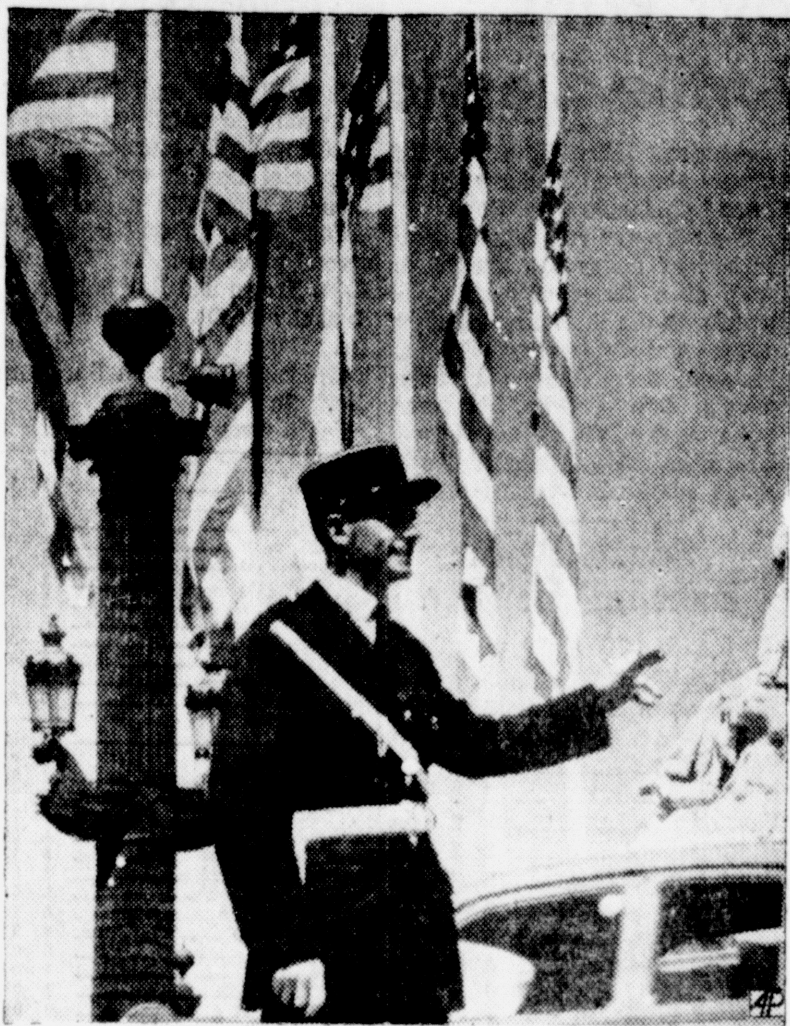

But without dams and flood-control systems programs, people who lived under the shadow of the Mississippi and its tributaries lived in a constant state of fear each spring. In 1952, for example, floods cost millions in property damage along with scores of lives.

Before that, as far back as the 1920's, flood control was almost entirely made up of unconnected local systems. But, after World War II, things began to hum: Dams, reservoirs, floodgates, and levees were built to control the flow rate. Reforestation and soil conservation practices decreased flood runoff.

Eventually, federal programs combined with local spending, will provide for 87 million acre-feet of flood-control storage in 219 reservoirs in the U.S., more than 9,000 miles of levees and floodwalls, and about 7,400 miles of channel improvement.

Thus, persons this year

RUSK WILL ASK CONGRESS FOR $4.75 BILLION

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk goes to Capitol Hill today to begin President Kennedy's battle for $4.75 billion in foreign aid money.

He testifies before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee against a background of senatorial demands for better administration of the vast aid program.

Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., said events of the past year have cast many doubts on administration of the military and economic assistance programs abroad. He said there have been too many examples of countries in which the programs have been living along the Mississippi, the Ohio and the Missouri rivers and their tributaries, despite one of history's wettest winters, could look at flood-rate gauges, pore over charts of rainfall data and still remain calm. They knew they had the equipment — the dams and reservoirs — to catch and store the snowmelt and resultant runoff.

corrupted or frustrated in their aim of promoting freedom.

Fulbright, committee chairman, made his observations in a statement prepared for reading at the opening of the morning session.

Rusk delayed his departure for Paris to join President Kennedy in his talks with President Charles de Gaulle to give the big mutual security measure a top level send off.

Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., a member of Fulbright's committee said Kennedy's request will be sharply trimmed by Congress.

"More money is not the crying need," Aiken said in an interview. "What the program needs is well-qualified, well-trained personnel to administer it without better administration; more money will only make its operation worse. I'm for giving whatever can be used effectively and honestly."

Fulbright said he hoped the committee could complete hearings during the next two weeks so the Senate can complete action by the end of June.

EMPLOYMENT GAIN WILL GO INTO MID-JULY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department reported today that a gradual employment pickup begun in March is expected to continue at least to mid-July.

The department's Bureau of Employment Security said its May survey of labor market trends show that employers in about two-thirds of the nation's 150 major industrial centers expect further slight seasonal employment gains into mid-summer.

The May job totals were due to be released in mid-afternoon. A further rise in employment, and decline in unemployment, were expected. Farm employment, kept down by heavy spring rains, is due to show some increase. Unemployment normally drops by over 250,000 from April.

IS MOVING FAST
The Employment Security Bureau's report indicated that job recovery is moving along faster than it did after the 1958 recession.

It said that three years ago, at approximately the equivalent stage of the previous recession, unemployment was still climbing.

This spring, the bureau said has seen declining unemployment in practically all major job areas, with the improvement in 10 of them sufficient to warrant promotion to more favorable ratings.

Five such areas have been shifted from the rating of 6 to 9 per cent of work force unemployed to 3 to 6 per cent category. These areas were San Francisco-Oakland, Calif.; New Haven, Conn.; Fort Wayne, Ind.; Indianapolis, Ind.; and Steubenville-Weirton, Ohio-W.Va.

CHANGE 5 AREAS

Five other areas were moved to lesser degrees of substantial unemployment ratings. The Utica-Rome, N.Y., area changed from the 9 to 12 per cent group to the 6 to 9 per cent category.

Two steel centers—Lorain-Elyria and Youngstown-Warren, both in Ohio; one auto center, Flint, Mich.; and one heavy metal-working center, Erie, Pa., moved to the 9 to 12 per cent group from the "worst" category of 12 per cent or more unemployment.

RENEWED HIRING

The number of areas rated as having substantial unemployment declined to 96 in May from the record total of 101 in March and April.

Renewed hiring in key durable goods industries, including auto and steel plants, contributed to the recent job improvement, along with seasonal gains in construction and other outdoor activities.

Employers reported that expected further hiring gains over the next two months will come in steel, metal fabricating, and electrical machinery, and the usual summer expansion in food processing.

Baltimore, Chicago, Youngstown-Warren, and San Francisco-Oakland are areas which the bureau mentioned as expected to benefit from payroll increases.

Seek More Bodies In Plane Crash

LISBON, Portugal (AP)—High tide was expected to wash more bodies and wreckage ashore today from a Dutch-Venezuelan airliner in which all 61 persons aboard were killed.

The four-engine jet crashed on a storm-swept Atlantic beach early Tuesday soon after taking off from Lisbon for the Azores. The plane had come from Rome and Madrid, leased by the Venezuelan airline Viasa from KLM.

There were no Americans aboard.

One American, William Aydelotte, had reservations to take the plane. Aydelotte, a former resident of Chicago, told a reporter, "I felt so good in Lisbon last night that I thought I'd wait for the next plane."

He said he still planned to fly on to the Azores.

TAKE NEW STEP IN LAOTIAN WAR

By CARL HARTMAN
GENEVA (AP) — The control commission of India, Canada and Poland notified the East-West conference in Laos today that it is taking a new initiative to halt the fighting in the Southeast Asian kingdom.

The commission dispatched a report of plans to send truce teams to trouble spots, including P a d o n g, where Meo tribesmen loyal to the pro-Western Vientian government are under attack from the artillery of the pro-Communist Pathet Lao rebels.

The commission said it would also send truce teams to the areas of Tchepone and Phalane-Moung Phing-Sepane.

The commission's report arrived as the conference seemed about to resume after a week's recess to hear the United States demand an end to Communist violations of the cease-fire.

The Soviet Union was expected to counter with a declaration putting emphasis on getting a political settlement in the strategic jungle nation.

Britain and the Soviet Union, as co-chairmen of the conference, reached a tentative agreement Tuesday to resume the sessions in a move that could clarify East-West positions before President Kennedy and Soviet Premier Khrushchev meet in Vienna this weekend.

Experts Will Demonstrate Crafts, Trades Of America At Two Programs In June

More than 50 "authentic" experts on crafts and trades of early America have been chosen as teachers and demonstrators at two state-sponsored historical and folkcraft programs scheduled in Lancaster and the nearby Pennsylvania Farm Museum June 15-18.

Conducted under the auspices of the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission, the gathering of the teaching talent has been centered in Pennsylvania Dutch country where many of the "old" crafts still are pursued today.

Thus, an Elmer Rapp will demonstrate the specialized techniques of Conestoga Wagon driving with a six-horse team; Noah Getz will be firing up an old steam locomotive to drive antique farm machinery; Mrs. Jack Zook will demonstrate tin decorating, and Miss Elizabeth Kachenmeister will put her nimble fingers to lace making.

MAKE FISH NETS

Others include Elmer Mau who has an ability to make fish nets recalling the once great shad runs on the Susquehanna River, and the entire membership of the Landis Valley Mennonite Church Sewing Circle who will put on a daily quilting bee.

The two programs are the fifth annual Institute of Pennsylvania Life and Culture, and the sixth annual Craft Days event at the Farm Museum. Arrangements are being made to accommodate an attendance of more than 4,000 persons at Craft Days which run the afternoons, 1 until 5 p.m., of Saturday and Sunday, June 17 and 18. Twenty-four different arts and crafts will be demonstrated.

The institute runs Thursday, June 15, through Saturday and is managed for the state by Pennsylvania State University. It attracts the smaller attendance of the two events, but is designed primarily for professional and nonprofessional persons who have an active interest in promotion of the Pennsylvania heritage.

HAVE 10 GROUPS

Those who enroll may select courses from 10 different study-group topics, half centered at the Farm Museum and the others at the Lancaster County Historical Society building where stress will be on various aspects of historical housekeeping. Subjects at the museum include textiles, kitchen crafts, farm crafts and implements, folk arts and guns.

Attendance at Craft Days costs 50 cents, children under 12 free, payable at the gate. Prospective institute students should request applications from Edward J. Connelley, the Pennsylvania State University Center, 814 Hill Ave., Wyomissing, Pa.

MARSHALL, N.C. (AP)—Fred E. Penland, who on March 25 called a Philadelphia, (Pa.) newspaper and confessed killing a man in Madison County 23 years ago, Tuesday was sentenced to 12 to 15 years in prison after submitting a plea of guilty to manslaughter.

TAX EXEMPTION ON TRACTORS IS BEING DELAYED

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Announcement of a controversial tax exemption for donations to the Tractors for Freedom Committee has been delayed because of congressional criticism.

Mortimer M. Caplin, commissioner of internal revenue, said today the IRS won't issue an opinion until its position has been studied by the Senate-House Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation.

Caplin, in an interview, would not say what sort of decision will be made. However, other sources gave strong indications that Caplin intends to grant the tax exemption.

PLAN EARLY ACTION

The IRS chief is expected to act by the end of the week. His opinion will be in the form of a letter to the tractor committee and will state that an exemption will be granted if the group meets a number of legal conditions.

The committee was formed to try to win freedom for 1,200 Cuban invasion prisoners.

The committee would buy 500 tractors which would be delivered to Cuba in exchange for the prisoners.

CITES REASON

President Kennedy has called for public support of the program which is privately sponsored.

Kennedy has said that "tax exemption is granted as a matter of course to any 'charitable' organization engaged in the rehabilitation and assistance of needy refugees."

Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., vice chairman of the Senate-House committee, last week questioned the legality of granting the fund-raising organization a tax exemption.

"A ruling of this kind would be a distortion of existing regulations," Byrd said. "This is not charity, it is blackmail."

MAHAFFEY NOT TOO FAST IN SIXTH VICTORY

By GEORGE ESPER

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Brilliant Art Mahaffey has become the second pitcher in the National League to win six games this year.

His eight complete games in nine starts is tops in the majors. His total of 33 strikeouts is fourth best in the National League and his earned run average of 2.07 is day with Mr. Hoke's mother, Mrs. Effie Hoke.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Herring, Littlestown, visited in town Sunday with relatives and friends.

one of the lowest among starters. And when you consider the fact that the weak-hitting Philadelphia Phillies are in last place and have won a total of only 12 games, that makes Mahaffey's accomplishments the more outstanding.

WASN'T AS GOOD

But the right-hander, who beat Milwaukee 11-4 Tuesday on an eight-hitter in the second game of a doubleheader after the Braves had taken the opener 3-1, didn't feel his performance was as good as previous ones. He refused to alibie but later reluctantly admitted a cold had weakened him.

"I wasn't too fast," he said after the game. "But I threw 80 per cent fast balls. I wasn't as quick but I hit most sports—out side, inside, low—and that's why I was getting them out."

Mahaffey, however, retired 18 men in a row after giving up a lead-off single to Lee Maye in the first inning. Then in the seventh Maye walked to break the string. Frank Bolling tripled for one run and the Braves added two more in the inning on a sacrifice fly, another walk and singles by Hank Aaron and Joe Torre.

The victory for Mahaffey, who will be 23 next Sunday, was his fourth in a row and second straight over the Braves. He has dropped three games.

The fast-balling sophomore said that you have to get ahead of a hitter before you can work on him. And usually he does. He has issued only 26 walks in 74 innings this year.

In explaining how he gets ahead of the hitter, Mahaffey said:

"If I'm good I'm not afraid to throw it right over the plate to get ahead, then I can move it out and in. But for the last three years I have been able to keep the ball away from left-handed hitters.

If it does go down the middle once in a while because it's moving away, making it harder to hit.

"I wasn't overpowering fast against the Braves' but I hit certain spots like outside to left-handed hitters."

Mahaffey's record bears him out. He's given up only 48 hits and only four homers in the 74 innings he has pitched.

"THE FLABBY AMERICAN" CITED ON TV

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP)—The good life of America—its cars, its push-buttons, its bountiful larder—is turning us into a nation of softies. That was the message Tuesday night of "The Flabby American," on ABC.

The picture drawn of Americans, young and old, was not attractive. The program pointed out that our young people have been described as "a generation of marshmallows." An appalling percentage failed simple military physical fitness tests. Many have fat where muscle should be, and most prefer watching sports to participating in them. We adults use our bodies even less.

What is the answer? "Exercise," said ABC's experts, advising half-bends and stair climbing for those who are too old for deep knee bends and pushups.

Edward R. Murrow's first network television appearance since he quit CBS to join the New Frontiersmen as head of the U.S. Information agency will be on a rival network: he'll be interviewed next Sunday on "Meet the Press."

Recommended tonight: Perry Como Show, NBC, 9-10 (EDT)—last program of the current season, with the production staff, as usual, as guest stars; Circle Theatre, CBS, 10-11—"Parole Granted," a dramatized documentary about the parole system.

A beluga whale's heart thumps only 12 to 20 times a minute, compared with a man's average of 70-72.

DOOMED BRIDE PASSES AWAY

REDLANDS, Calif. (AP)—Nancy Fortune, 17, a bride of 10 days, is dead. She never knew her marriage to her childhood sweetheart, Dwight Twomey, was doomed. Their wedding was planned for years, as they grew up together in nearby Riverside. But Dwight was called for military service, and they decided to wait until he was free.

Twomey went to Okinawa for 13 months, with the Marines. In that time Nancy fell ill. She was brought to Community Hospital here, and Dwight, 19, came home. They were married last week at the hospital's chapel, in the presence of the family and a few friends. Nancy went back to her hospital bed for more treatment, cheered by dreams of her life with Dwight.

Her husband and relatives knew she hoped in vain. But Nancy never learned that she had leukemia, which took her life Monday night.

Floriculturists say crabgrass is not likely to be a problem in bluegrass if the grass is cut two inches high or higher and given moderate fertilization.

PLAN FOR CARNIVAL

Plans for the annual summer carnival were advanced at the monthly meeting of the Kingsdale Volunteer Fire Company on Monday evening in the engine house, along the Littlestown-Taneytown Rd. The carnival will be held August 21 through 26 on the grounds in the rear of the engine house. There will be musical entertainment, rides, exhibits, refreshments, special activities, etc.

President Ralph Copenhaver presided and heard the reports of Theron Bair, secretary, and Harry Hess, treasurer. A schedule was announced for participation in parades in other towns this summer. The firemen will meet again on Monday, June 26.

The Cub Scouts of Den 5, Pack 84, enjoyed an outing with hike and picnic supper, following the charter presentation ceremonies on Sunday afternoon. The group traveled to the home of den mother Mrs. Denton Barnhart, near town, for a wiener roast and picnic supper, prepared and served by the leaders, Mrs. Barnhart and Mrs. William Waltz. The group then went to the Sheppard and Myers Dam where the caretaker explained to the Cubs how water is measured and his various other duties; he also showed them a collection of deer horns accumulated from the grounds. An area on the grounds was assigned to them for hiking and the walk was highlighted by the sight of several deer. In addition to the den mother, the Cubs present were Randy Miller, William Waltz, Steve Arter, Donald Rinehart, William Sheely, Douglas Barnhart, Lewis Waltz and James Beard; assisting were Den Chief Robert Altoff and Den Fathers Denton Barnhart and William Waltz.

The following from town attended the graduation exercises at East Stroudsburg State College on Sunday and spent the remainder of the weekend in East Stroudsburg: Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Eyer, Mrs. Richard Geisler, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Waltman, children, Jeff and Jim. Kenneth Eyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Eyer, brother of Mrs. Geisler, and husband of Mrs. Barbara Waltman Eyer, received his Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education at the commencement exercises. Mr. and Mrs. Eyer entertained the members of their families and other friends and neighbors at a lawn party following the exercises. On June 10, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Eyer will move to Scranton, where he has enrolled in the University of Scranton to begin work for his Master's degree. Mrs. Eyer has accepted a position on the nursing staff at Moses Taylor Hospital in Scranton.

BRAVES SET FIRE ON BUS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — An irate Milwaukee manager Charlie Dressen warned the Braves that "some of you will be gone after June 15," after someone set fire to newspapers in the back of a bus carrying the team from the Philadelphia ball park to an airport Tuesday night. June 15 is the last day for major league teams to make trades.

The blaze caused no damage but brought plenty of heat from Dressen.

"You play like nanny goats and then you act like you won the pennant," Dressen barked at the players. "You would think you won a doubleheader. Why didn't you make a nose like that on the field. Why didn't you set fire under Mahaffey out there instead of here?"

Dressen referred to the Philadelphia hurler Art Mahaffey who beat the Braves 11-4 after the Milwaukee club had taken the opener 3-1. The Braves were enroute to the airport to catch a plane to take them to Pittsburgh where they play tonight.

Kennedy's Spending Could Hit Billion In A Few Years

By FRANK CORMIER
WASHINGTON (AP)—Federal spending will hit the $100-billion mark within the next few years. Will this prove a symbol of national progress or a milestone on the road to fiscal ruin?

The Republican leaders in Congress, Sen. Everett Dirksen of Illinois and Rep. Charles Halleck of Indiana, already are talking about "a jungle of unprecedented spending and loose fiscal policies."

They say President Kennedy is headed for a budget of $125 billion by 1965.

Dirksen and Halleck sounded off after Kennedy last week unveiled new plans to boost spending for space research, defense, foreign aid, civil defense and jobs.

ADD MILLIONS

According to Budget Bureau estimates, these plans will add about $800 million to spending in the 1962 fiscal year which begins July 1.

Kennedy two months ago predicted a fiscal 1962 deficit of $2.8 billion. Now the Treasury is talking about a deficit approaching $4 billion; some others in the administration say $5 billion or more.

If Congress once again ignores a presidential plea for higher postal rates, as seems likely, an additional $800 million would be added to the deficit.

Barring higher postal rates, spending in fiscal 1962 probably will total at least $86.5 billion as against predicted revenues of about $81.4 billion.

KENNEDY STATEMENT

Although red ink spending on such a scale is a distinct possibility, Kennedy had this to say in making his latest spending proposals:

"I am not requesting additional taxes to finance the very urgent requests I am making today—for our present tax structure and resources are more than sufficient to support them without a budget deficit if our economy moves ahead."

Kennedy thus pinpointed the problem he will face as spending moves steadily toward $100 billion a year.

If the economy moves ahead fast enough, $100 billion can buy a lot of progress without adding to the national debt or refueling the engine of inflation.

TWO YEARS

If not, the budgetary jungle which Dirksen and Halleck talked about may be dense indeed.

Spending probably won't reach $100 billion a year until fiscal 1964, which is still two years away.

To produce revenues to match outlays of that magnitude the economy would have to advance to full employment.

This isn't to say that every worker would have to hold a job. To Kennedy's economic advisers, full employment would allow for 4 per cent unemployment. According to unofficial estimates prepared by government experts, if the 4 per cent rate can be achieved in the 1963 calendar year, federal revenues in fiscal 1964 would total about $100 billion. The gross national product—the value of total U. S. output—would amount to approximately $600 billion.

MAY HAVE ALARM

Today the unemployment rate is just under 7 per cent and the national product is just above $500 billion.

If the economy fails to bridge the gap between today's performance and the 1963 goals, Dirksen and Halleck may be able to do plenty of pointing with alarm in 1964 when Kennedy seeks a second term.

FOOD STAMPS GIVEN FAMILY IN 1ST ISSUE

By BURL OSBORNE
WELCH, W. Va. (AP)—Needy persons in southern West Virginia are holding their heads higher today, armed with a more dignified—if not yet proven—way of accepting federal aid to feed their families.

The first of eight pilot food stamp programs, using a form of currency that will buy only food, began Monday in McDowell County in the heart of the soft coal country.

The food coupons replaced handouts of surplus food commodities which more than half the county's population had been receiving. Most of the needy are coal miners, displaced by mechanization.

FIRST TO GET STAMPS

First to receive stamps in Welch was a family of 15, which had been without a steady income for more than a year. Alderson Muncy, 47, an unemployed miner, said he managed to feed his family by gardening, a few odd jobs and standing in a monthly line to receive surplus food.

Dressed in khaki work clothes, Muncy, restlessly awaited Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman and Gov. W. W. Barron, who gave him the stamps.

Muncy ran his hand along a receding hairline. "It's been pretty rough the last couple of years," he said.

PAID NOTHING

Since his family has no income at all, Muncy paid nothing for the $95 worth of stamps given them to last a month. "Yes, sir, this will help," he grinned.

Gardening has been a mainstay of the family's economy, his wife said, but the dry and cold growing season is hurting crops of bean, beet, onions, lettuce, cab-war material from the West for use against the Russians was actually a Gestapo scheme for a peace that would save their own skins. The Eichmann trial court was told Tuesday.

The deal, proposed by Adolf Eichmann in Hungary, founded in Allied councils over worry about negotiating with an enemy after "unconditional surrender" had been laid down as the only terms Hitler ever would get.

The Israeli prosecution of Eichmann as Heinrich Himmler's right-hand man in the extermination of the Jews produced a series of documents, reaching into the British Foreign Office files, to illustrate the death of the Jews' last hopes for survival.

JEWS FOR TRUCKS

They showed how Eichmann dispatched a Jewish leader, Joel

Brand, from Budapest with the plan to redeem a million Jews against 10,000 trucks and set loose a train of feverish activity.

A meeting with Britain's Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden in London ensued. Eden warned the West had to consult the Russians and "they could not possibly agree to anything that looked like negotiations with the enemy."

With the deportations of 600,000 Hungarians Jews to the death camps in high gear at that time, the summer of 1944, the Jewish leaders also demanded that the Allies bomb the gas chambers of Auschwitz and the rail lines leading to it. This was turned down "for political considerations."

Another proposal of the free world Jews to drop Palestine paratroops into Hungary as a cadre of resistance was approved

Murderess Kills Self With Knife

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A 56-year-old Philadelphia woman sentenced to life in prison for murdering her son 22 years ago has committed suicide, the coroner reports.

Mrs. Tillie Irelan was found dead Monday in a field adjoining the Norristown State Hospital. Dr. John C. Simpson, Montgomery County coroner, said she killed herself with a knife.

Mrs. Irelan escaped from the hospital April 30. She had been a patient there since 1946 after being transferred from the State Industrial School for Women at Muncy.

According to the order, released Monday, the employees must vote within 30 days on whether to be represented by Local 1034 of the Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Union, or by the Retail Clerks, International Association, or by neither.

SINGING STAR CONTENT WHEN SHE'S AT HOME

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Scratch a star, to paraphrase an old saw, and you'll find a performer hunting for a TV series with "the right format."

One exception is Rosemary Clooney, the blonde singing star, who is perfectly content with the format she has.

Rosie makes a number of guest appearances on the top TV shows each year, does a daily radio show with Bing Crosby, accepts a few night club engagements—and turns down everything else.

STAYS WITH CHILDREN

"I won't take anything that keeps me away from the children more than two weeks at a time," she said firmly during a recent weekend visit to New York. "And whenever it is possible, I take the kids with me."

Rosie in her important private life is Mrs. Jose Ferrer and the mother of five children, the oldest of which is 6 and the youngest, 14 months.

It is a cinch when Miss Clooney is signed for a guest spot on a Hollywood-produced TV show—a few days of rehearsal, the taping session and she is free to return to her parental chores again.

EASY RADIO SHOW

"But the easiest," she claimed, "is the radio show. Bing and I just sit around our house for an hour or so making the shows. We have a recording session every couple of weeks, do a bunch of shows and have a ball."

(The program is on CBS-Radio, Monday through Friday, 10:40-11 a.m., Eastern Daylight Time.)

When it is possible to cart the children along on an engagement, it's like traveling with a small army. Recently, when Rosie had a Nevada nightclub date, she rented a big furnished house near the club to take care of the brood and their two nurses.

The Kingston Trio, which has been active with TV guest spots all season, is planning to split up after some serious disagreements. Dave Guard—the man in the middle of the singing group—will move out while the two end men, Nick Reynolds and Bob Shane, plan to continue with a replacement, Guard, however, says he owns the act's name.

FIRE DESTROYS POCONO LODGE

MT. POCONO, Pa. (AP)—The Ontonagon resort lodge in the heart of the Pocono Mountain vacation area was destroyed Tuesday by fire. None of the 100 guest rooms were occupied and 10 employees of the lodge were unharmed.

Some 30 guests had been expected to arrive later today to start the summer vacation season.

The three-story hotel wing of the lodge was ruined by the blaze which fire Chief Ernest Bisbing said apparently began in a middle room of the second floor.

Bisbing said he had been unable to determine the cause. He made no damage estimate.

The lodge, rebuilt in 1931 after another fire, was an L-shaped wood and masonry structure with the rooms located in one leg. The main dining room, in the other leg, also was destroyed beyond firemen could contain the blaze.

The employees' quarters were on the other side of the dining room.

DEATHS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Dr.

Arnold L. Gesell, 80, widely known in the field of pediatrics and child development, died Monday.

In 1911 he founded the Clinic of Child Development at the Yale Medical School.

FOND DU LAC, Wis. (AP)—

Albert Henry Lange, 75, chairman of the board of the Reporter

Printing Co., which publishes the

Fond Du Lac Commonwealth Reporter, died Monday.

CHICAGO (AP)—Benjamin

Samuels, 83, president of Yellow

Cab Co., Inc., since 1932 and long prominent in civic and charitable activities, died Monday after a long illness. Samuels, who was born in Chicago, became associated with the company in 1912.

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—Rep.

William Scranton, R-Pa., calls Cu-bah's offer to exchange 1,200 prisoners for 500 tractors "an incredible extortion plan."

"There are thousands more incarcerated in Cuba for political reasons, or for no reason at all,

and if we fall for this blackmail,

what extortion will they ask next?" Scranton said Tuesday in a Memorial Day speech. He spoke at an observance in Nay Aug park.

Delaware Free Of Traffic Deaths

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—The state of Delaware went through the 102-hour Memorial Day weekend without a single fatal traffic accident, officials reported today.

One reason for the clean record was that police announced prior to the start of the weekend last Friday night that all available means would be used to eliminate accidents.

State police reported in advance

they would use every available man, use radar and patrol the highways with aircraft in stopping speeding.

STATE'S DEATH TOLL IS LOWER THAN IN 1960

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fifteen persons were killed in traffic accidents in Pennsylvania over the long Memorial Day weekend, a drop in comparison to last year's toll for the holiday period.

Two drownings, a fatal boating accident and eight other mishaps pushed this year's holiday death toll of 26 for the 102-hour reporting period which began at 6 p.m.

Friday and ended at midnight

Tuesday night.

Last year 22 persons were killed in traffic accidents in the state over the Memorial Day weekend which lasted only 78 hours in 1960.

The over-all toll was 28 in 1960.

While showing a drop in comparison to last year's figures, the 1961 toll was one of the highest in the nation in both traffic and overall tabulations.

For comparative purposes this year, the Associated Press conducted a tabulation for a similar

102-hour period from Friday May

12 until Tuesday May 16. During the non-holiday period, 14 persons died in traffic accidents, three drowned and three died in other mishaps for an overall total of 20.

The latest fatalities Tuesday included:

Lancaster—James R. Gast, 42, a father of four, was repairing a car Tuesday when it slipped from its mounting and pinned him.

3 DROWNINGS

Philadelphia—Gary Clausen, 7, drowned Tuesday in Wissahickon

Creek.

Ellwood City—Wasyli Drodz, 73, fatally injured by an auto here

Tuesday.

Harrisburg—William McHose,

18, Dauphin R. 1, drowned

Tuesday as the small outboard

motorboat he and two companions were in went over a dam south of here.

Carlisle—Robert A. Enck, 3, of Churtown, drowned in Yellow

Breches Creek at nearby Bellow

Springs Tuesday while on a Memorial Day visit to his grandmother's house. Officials said the boy apparently wandered off unnoticed.

One of the nation's largest bowling establishments is at Edison,

N. J. It includes 112 alleys.
